

I urge the rejection of the NAB's petition 04-160. I have chosen satellite radio as my provider of "radio" entertainment. They have the right to provide local content as well as any other company. I am in the magazine publishing business. I have no right to deny anyone else the opportunity to publish a magazine offering similar content. The public will determine the company providing the best content - this applies to radio as well.